Chance for Tuffley residents to highlight ASB issues

Tuffley residents will have the opportunity to highlight any issues of anti-social behaviour causing them concern in their local area at a Face the People event being held this month.

The event starts at 6pm on Thursday 29th January, at the 7th Avenue Shop Parade in Tuffley.

Residents can join the group at any point on the route as the group tours Robert Raikes Avenue, Goddard Way, Evenlode Road, Bourton Road, Bisley Road, Gurney Avenue, Headlam Close and Chadwick Close, Windrush Road and Kemble Road giving everyone in the area a chance to have a say.

A Face the People session is where senior representatives of the organisations dealing with anti-social behaviour meet the public to find out about the issues of concern in that area. It is also an opportunity for them to keep the community informed about specific local successes. Gloucester City Homes Face the People events form part of the company's commitment to the government's Respect Agenda.
