'Funtastic' Day for GCH customers

Gloucester City Homes is hosting a Community Fun Day for its customers on Saturday 16th August from 11am to 3pm at Plock Court, Tewkesbury Road.

The day promises to have everything on hand to keep the kids amused as the summer holidays continue, with a host of attractions and entertainment lined up for the day. Every child attending will be given a free Frisbee on arrival.

Activities on the day include:

- Climbing wall and inflatable slide and bouncy castle
- Music, dance and cheerleading displays
- Fire engine
- Interactive trade displays that includes brick laying and plumbing
- Clown, acrobatics and circus skills
- Health and fitness tests and advice
- Face painting and henna tattoos
- Pigs/piglets
- Police providing bike coding and giving away free bike lights.
- Information and advice stalls
- Children's photography competition
- Free prize draw to win a Wii games console and mountain bike
- Refreshments including burgers, tea, cakes and a chocolate fruit fountain.

And with Severn Sound's Black Thunders scheduled to attend on the day, it's definitely an exciting event not to be missed.
